

Got Questions?

We're all ears

At King of Peace, we value doubts and questions as signs of active faith. We don't promise easy answers to life's tough questions. We do promise to listen, really listen. We'll give you some answers to think about as we prayerfully listen to how God is working in our lives.

We'll encourage you to think for yourself about answers to life's tough questions. The answers may surprise you, they may confound you. But struggling with the tough questions of life can bring peace that ignoring them will never bring. And we can all use more peace.

November 14

Why does God allow suffering?

November 21

Is there a conflict between Science and Christianity?

November 28

What about other religions? Can they be true too?

December 5

What does Christianity say about sexuality?

December 12

Does life have meaning? Why am I here?

December 19

What happens after we die, really?

January 2

How can I read and understand the Bible? Can I believe it?

Questioning Your Faith

Wednesdays from 7 to 8 p.m.

from November 14, 2007 through January 2, 2008

King of Peace Episcopal Church

www.kingofpeace.org